

WE REALLY DO

"Do you really sell 5 1/2% Guaranteed Mortgages on this market?" asked a friend the other day. "Look at this report," we answered, picking up the General Manager's last statement—"half a million in two weeks. We consider that real selling." And we believe you'll agree that our Guaranteed Mortgages must be worth while to show such a demand.

LAWYERS IN CLASH
AT RUMLEY'S TRIAL

Counsel Objects to Efforts to Show German Money on Deposit Here.

HAD MILLIONS IN BANK

Effort Made to Prove That Von Bernstorff Was Back of 'Evening Mail.'

By way of laying a foundation for evidence that Dr. Edward A. Rumley, former proprietor and editor of the Evening Mail, purchased that newspaper with funds supplied by the German Government and operated it with German money during part of the time this country was in the war, Harold Harper, Deputy Attorney General, who is prosecuting Dr. Rumley in the United States District Court, devoted yesterday's session of the trial to introducing bank records and examining bank clerks who could swear that certain deposits were German funds.

Dr. Rumley is being tried on an indictment charging him with withholding from the Alien Property Custodian information that the Evening Mail was German owned. It is charged that he paid $748,000 for the newspaper and that the money was supplied through Count Johann von Bernstorff, then German Ambassador to this country, and Dr. Heinrich Albert, who was Germany's commercial representative here.

Practically all the evidence admitted yesterday was over the objection of Stephen C. Baldwin, counsel for Dr. Rumley, and was resolved upon condition that the prosecution, after showing that German money was on deposit where Dr. Rumley could get it, offer competent evidence to show that he actually did get it and used it to buy the Evening Mail.

Frank H. Sikes testified that he was employed by the Central Union Trust Company in 1915, and that Germany had $9,000,000 on deposit with the institution that year, the funds being the proceeds of the sale of German notes.

Alfred E. Barron, another employee of the company, swore that the money later was transferred to the Equitable Trust Company and carried in a joint account opened in the names of Bernstorff and Albert.

Another witness, A. W. Williams, cashier for G. Amsinck & Co., told of an account carried with his firm for Bernstorff and Albert, and said that in May of 1915 two checks were drawn on the account to the order of one Walter Lyon, a broker. The checks were for $135,000 and $5,000. The prosecution expects to show that Lyon received the money as a representative of Dr. Rumley. The last witness of the day was Frederick C. Marston, assistant treasurer of the Columbia Trust Company, who identified a check for $200,000 made payable to Lyon as one which had been cashed by his company.

DENY MARKET SURVEY TO CLOTHING WORKERS

Manufacturers Insist Recent Inquiry Was Sufficient.

Demand of clothing workers for a further investigation into market conditions in this city as a means of reaching an agreement with the manufacturers on the question of the employment right to install piece work in the factories in order to increase production were refused yesterday by the market committee of the Clothing Manufacturers' Association.

The committee held that an impartial investigation of this kind had been held recently at the joint request of the union and the association, and that to appoint a sub-committee to make another investigation would cause delay in effecting a settlement.

Irving Crane, secretary of the association, said that the clothing industry of the city is on a 25 to 30 per cent basis, compared with its normal activity, due to employment troubles and to the slackening in demand.

PRICKEN BAIL SET AT $50,000 IN FRAUD CASE

Three Indicted in Stock Deal Involving $11,000.

Adolph Pricken, president of the Coastwise Warehouse, Inc., 534 Washington street, Manhattan, who left Sing Sing Prison penniless in 1915 and now is said to be worth more than $1,000,000, was held yesterday in $50,000 bail by Judge Mitchell May in Brooklyn after he had been indicted on a charge of obtaining $11,000 under false pretenses. Theodore Southard of 1624 University avenue, The Bronx, brother-in-law of Pricken, who was vice-president of the company, and Frank A. Page of 418 Seventy-fifth street, Brooklyn, secretary, were held in $5,000 each.

The charges against the trio grew out of the sale of stock in the warehouse company. Harry E. Lewis, District Attorney, in arguing for high bail, said Pricken obtained $70,000 from Brooklyn investors and about $300,000 from investors in Manhattan.

The trial will begin Monday.

25 MORE POLICEMEN
GUARD WALL STREET

Cream of City Force Sent There After Report of New Bomb Plot.

Wall Street was put under a stronger guard yesterday upon rumors of another bomb plot. A detail of twenty-five additional policemen picked carefully from the entire police force of the city, was assigned to the financial district here, within which the financial district lies. It was announced that there will be a permanent addition to the protective force in the money centre.

Chief Inspector Leahy, in selecting the new Wall Street guardians, called 100 of the finest young officers in the department to Police Headquarters. His instructions, which were given privately, were to maintain constant vigilance in the district.

The new officers will patrol Wall, New and Broad streets and the adjacent section of Broadway. Vehicles passing through the district as well as pedestrians will be subjected to closest scrutiny and investigation if the circumstances seem to warrant. The heaviest patrol will be from 8:30 A. M. until after banking hours. Bankers on business calls and passengers transferring bonds and currency will be protected to their destinations.

It was learned that the detective force in the district has been increased materially. Information obtained by police operatives who were working among radicals caused these precautions, it was reported.

The guard thrown about 998 Fifth avenue, an apartment dwelling, following a threat against Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, was withdrawn yesterday morning. In the house live Ethel Root, Murray Guggenheim, Lewis L. Clarke, President of the American Exchange National Bank, and others.

135 ACRE TRACT GIVEN
GIRL SCOUTS FOR CAMP

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clark Will Present It To-day.

The donation of a 135-acre tract of land for a camp by ex-Senator and Mrs. William A. Clark to the Girl Scouts was announced yesterday. The tract, which includes wooded land, hills, meadows and a lake, is at Briar Cliff, N. Y., and has been given by the Senator and his wife as a memorial to their late daughter, Andrea, who was an ardent Girl Scout. A spring on the land will be used to supply a fountain representing Andrea Clark in a Girl Scout uniform. A permanent fund will be started to maintain the property, which will be known as Andrea Clark Camp.

The formal presentation of the property will take place this afternoon at the Girl Scout headquarters, 139 Lexington avenue, and the ceremony will be one of the features of the campaign which the Girl Scout organization is carrying on to raise $1,033,409 to support its various activities.

MISTRIAL DELAYS
EXTORTION CASE

Two Jurors Admit Knowing 'Big Ed' Furey's Counsel After Testimony Is Taken.

TWELVE NEW MEN CHOSEN

Prisoner Accused of Trying to Hold Up Insurance Broker in Fire Case.

When it was discovered yesterday that two of the jurors sitting in the trial of Edward H. ("Big Ed") Furey on charges of attempted extortion in General Sessions were acquainted with one of the counsel for the defence, a mistrial was declared by Judge Rosalsky and the jury discharged. The trial had begun Monday morning, the jury had been picked, one witness questioned and the questioning of a second had begun before court adjourned that afternoon.

As the trial was about to be resumed yesterday morning, Juror No. 6, Joseph Gordon of 287 Broadway, told Assistant District Attorney John T. Dooling, who is prosecuting the case, that he knew Randolph Newman, one of the counsel for the defence. Mr. Dooling communicated this fact to Judge Rosalsky and

"Hoover"

Hoover—not Mr. Herber Hoover, just plain Hoover—is a name to conjure with.

He is a man of action as well as of thought. He is efficiency personified. No need to recount what he did, not only for Belgium but for the United States during the war. The word Hoover in Europe, including Germany, is a promise as good as performed. He is a man you can pin your faith to with confidence of results.

This is the man to head an Edge Corporation, and this is the time for the formation of such a corporation on the broadest lines, which is not putting the cart before the horse, because such a corporation will be of very little use without the proper executive.

With the foreign exchanges in their present low state, partly due to the low ebb of European credit, the cost of American goods for foreign markets is prohibitive. The result will be stagnation in our export trade. The Edge Act offers a practical means of restoring European credit and thus financing our exports.

Would the South, its warehouses bulging with cotton, object to Hoover? Would the farmer of the West with his record crops? Would the manufacturer of the East, his raw materials waiting to be turned into goods? Would any financial expert?

Who would object to Hoover, and who can offer a better name to bring together the consumers of Europe and the producers of America?
